Khomeini's Ideology Concept

Khomeini says in one of his sayings "that all what I brought for Iranians is inspired from Kerbla's tragedy" this saying indicates clearly that Khomeini's revolution he brought for Iranian people is dedication to sadness and depression culture for Iran and Iranian community. That crazy person cancels all happiness and joy appearances for Persian nation to replace it with sadness culture inspired from Hussein's imam tragedy (grandson of Mohammed Prophet). Simply Khomeini's ideology he inspired from Hussein's tragedy implied that Hussein imam has been killed with his family by Muslims perverts so all Muslims should live their life term in permanent sadness and depression during all times until dooms day to prove that they are loyal for their Hussein imam. This is Khomeini's sick ideology he applied to Iranians and tried to export to others countries such as Iraq, Lebanon and Palestine and he succeeded to do so. Under this ideology, that every appearance of joy and pleasure for Iranians is illicit thing and his regime should fight it. Khomeini made Iranians live under sadness, depression and terror. Here I want ask any unfanatic Muslim or non-Muslim is sensible that people should live their life term in permanent depression and sadness to prove their loyalty for Hussein imam? Absolutely, the answer will be no.

Here we can say that Khomeini has dedicated the sadness culture in Iran that reflects clearly his sick ideology.

Recognizing for all worlds, that joy and luxurious life appearances, artistic works figured to nobles and kings who ruled Persia through different historical times, were the special feature for Iranian civilization and reflected for all world that Iranian people are people love life, joy, beauty and colors. That feature of flamboyant and luxurious clothes available in civilization heritage for Iran kept the feature distinguishes a greatness of Persian civilization and people and its love for joy and beauty than others world's peoples. But after arrival Khomeini to ruling Iran, a view of world for Iran has changed dramatically because Khomeini dyed Iran with blackness and sadness and made Iranian women wear black and tall cloaks that prevents any appearance reflects the happiness or joy for her even he banned

Iranian woman to dress with anything makes her appear as a happy woman because he wants to Iranians to keep a sad nation forever and don't know civilization so we can see clearly that view of advanced countries for Iran, has changed after Islamic overthrow where Iranian person became in view point of these countries is ignorant and ridiculous guy for all. Even this view about Iranians, was available here in Iraq for a lot of Iraqis during 80's decade. That view of the world towards mullah's regime is a same their view to Taliban's regime in Afghanistan both meet in one tributary and both are responsible about most terrorist activities that invaded Europe, America and others countries around world during last decades. In fact, Khomeini and Taliban's regimes are 2 faces for one coin if they differed in ideology where both did to eradicating national and historical features for Iran and Afghanistan to replace it with Islam civilization even that Khomeini's regime preferred affiliation of Iranians to Islam than their national affiliation to Iran and its ancient civilization so we can see, that Iran became invaded with a lot of Arabs and other Islamic nationalities, such as Iraqis, Lebanon, Palatines and others even some of those nationals became have more privileges and preference than Iranians themselves because Khomeini's regime prefers Islamic affiliation than national affiliation to Iran and its civilization so Iranian person who his love and affiliation to the Islam stronger than his national affiliation be favorite guy for mullah's regime. Simply we can say that Khomeini removes all what.
