History of Monarchy in Iran Zamin:

Nader Shah Afshar:

Iran's history is full of surprises, and there is no dull moment in Iran's history, which has become focal point of this monthly paper, it reflects on Iran's history with intention of learning from past leaders whom demonstrated courage, bravery and honor to save Iran from total demise. This portion of the paper is focusing on Nader Afshar, who joined army as a pawn, and eventually became King of Kings Nader Afshar and history recorded him as the second Napoleon of Persia or the second Alexander.

On August 06th, 1698 Nader Qoli Beg or Tahmasp Qoli Khan from Turkmen tribe opened his eyes, in a peasant family, in Province of Khorasan. His father passed away at very young age, and he had to take care of his mother early on in his life. It was not long before, when Nader and his mother became slave of Uzbek or perhaps Turkmen tribes. Nader developed a personality of defiance, and managed to breakaway from master-slave relation and to live as a free person by joining Afshar brigade. He quickly illustrated his leadership skills to his peers and superiors which put him on limelight, and became a commander of his peers. It was not long before, when he courted the local chief Baba Ali Beg, who had two daughters. He married the two daughters, subsequently these marriages put him in favorable military position.

Nader began to witness Shah Soltan Hussein from Safavid dynasty to lose his political power, when in today's Afghanistan Mir Malek Mahmud revolted against Shah Soltan Hussein, and charged at Iran's capital city of Esfehan/Isfehan and captured the city of Esfehan. Shah Soltan Hussein failed to defend sovereignty of his kingdom the city and Mahmud became King of Persia in 1722.

At this time of political transition Nader submitted to Afghan governor in Khorasan, and elder son of Shah Soltan Hussein, Tahmasp declared himself as the King of Persia and wanted to reclaim the throne. However, Iranian did not support Tahmasp to overthrow Mahmud. Only Qajar tribe responded to his plea.

Tahmasp and Qajar leader Fath Ali Khan recruited Nader as commander of army to overthrow Mahmud from the throne. Nader accepted their invitation and was preparing himself for combats with Mahmud. It was during this preparation times which became obvious for Tahmasp that Fath Ali Khan was collaborating with Mahmud, and had compromised their position. Subsequently, Tahmasp issued a warrant for Fath Ali Khan arrest, and charged with treason as Fath Ali Khan walked through shadow of death. Thus, Nader took title of Servant of Tahmasp.

Nader was ready to challenge authority of Mahmud, and knew very well city of Esfehan was well protected by Mahmud's zealous army to defend the city against aggression and would be impossible to topple Mahmud reign in one military strike. So, he decided to demoralize Mahmud and his army and to make a point that his new found kingdom was not under his reign by defeating Adbali near city of Herat, which worked in Nader's best interest, and recruited Adbali's army which was contributing in strength of Nader's army and morale.

It was during this uncertainly times, when Mahmud faced external turmoil because he was always suspicious about loyalty of his people, and his cousin Ashraf, who was well respected by everyone put Ashraf at cross point with Mahmud, and Mahmud imprisoned Ashraf in order to make sure Ashraf would not be able to claim his throne, but it did not last long, when some of Mahmud's men set him free from prison, and it claimed Mahmud's life under suspicious circumstances.

Nader decided to use the moment of chaos and to finish this unstable kingdom, as soon as, possible by charging at Ashraf, and this battle became known as Battle of Damghan. Ashraf lost the battle and fled the war. Nader entered city of Esfahan as inhabitants greeted Nader with all their respect and dignity, but there was a surprise for inhabitants that Nader's army began to collect booty for their service.

Nader did not waste any time, and prepared his army to pursue Ashraf. Eventually, Ashraf was killed by his own men, and Nader decided to destroy city of Kandahar in order to eradicate any potential threat from Afghan warriors, and suppressed any possible revolt from Afghanistan.

Nuclear Saga of Mullah Must Go On:

The International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) which is body of the United Nations atomic watch dogs has reported about the cleric regime in Iran that it has not halt its uranium enrichment program as it was instructed by the United Nations to do so. Most importantly, the current uranium enrichment activities are indicating the cleric regime is gearing toward nuclear weapons. Thus, the cleric regime has been moving toward nuclear weapons and there is not any longer any doubt the regime is a threat for regional stability and undermining global safety and security. Also the cleric regime no longer can claim its nuclear programs are to generate electricity. Subsequently, there is concern among the permanent five United Nations Security Council members, the United States of America, Britain, France, Russia, China, and plus one which is Germany are lost how to convince the cleric regime in Iran to halt uranium enrichment which is not budging in to anything. Hence, the US proposing another economic sanction against the establishment in Iran, but it is a tough sale to pitch in to the Russia and China.

On August 07th, 2008 Russia had a brief military incursion in Georgia, which has caused friction between White House and Kremlin, and the two superpowers are no longer chummy with each other any more which would be difficult for the US to propose a firm economic sanction against the regime in Iran which would be satisfactory for Russia and China. Just to make the matter hard on the US to impose another economic sanction against the regime in Iran. The China believes it would fruitless to impose another economic sanction against the regime in Iran which only means any economic section against the regime in Iran would be veto as of this time.

There should not be any doubt that any economic sanction against establishment in Iran would not have any effect on regime to curb its nuclear programs whatsoever. In fact, the cleric regime would use such sanction as an instrument to spread propaganda in Iran that the world did not want Iran to become an independent nation and preventing Iran to make progress in field of technology. Thus, any economic sanction against the regime in Iran would provide an elusive legitimacy right to the regime to develop nuclear facilities, whether it is for electricity or weapon of mass destruction. The regime would have gain support of people to remain steadfast to develop nuclear bombs, and Israeli people should start saving their money to purchase US made bunker-busting bombs from Pentagon in order to survive nuclear blast as the cleric regime's selected president Mahmoud Ahmadi Nezhad is always prophesying about destruction of Israel in his speech.

There is only one solution not to meet the cleric's destiny which is empowering Iranian dissidents to overthrow the cleric regime in Iran, and allowing Iranian to determine their own destiny. The cleric regime has been in Iran since 1979, and there is only one reason for such a plutocracy and kleptocracy system to last this long which is due to Western nations support by conducting back-room deals with regime in Iran; such as, economic trades between Rafsanjani's families with multinational corporates. Otherwise, the regime in Iran would collapse at no time.

Let's build a better future for everyone and stop thinking for best interest of multinational corporates, as well as, politicians that they are in payroll of the cleric regime. Let's give the tools to Iranian dissidents to finish the regime in Iran. Let's finish this epidemic disease of Islamic Republic from surface of earth. Let's do it.

Selected Mullah President Mahmoud Ahmadi Nezhad Visited the United Nations:

It was that time of the year for member of United Nations to hold an assembly at the United Nations headquarter in city of New York in order to discuss world affairs in peaceful terms. Interestingly, the United Nations has two piece of documents from Iran which are symbolizing Iran as a modern and peaceful nation. One is Cyrus the Great's Universal Declaration of Human Rights and last is Sa'di Shiraz poem:

Human beings are members of a whole, In Creation of one essence and soul

If one member is afflicted with pain, Other members uneasy will remain

If you have no sympathy for human pain, The name of human you cannot retain

It is true Iranians are peace loving, showing respect to others, greeting people with dignity and countless other outstanding qualities which would become their identity as an Iranian. However, since 1979 Iranians are not projecting same image as their true identity. Iranians are projecting image of hostility against Western nations, aggression toward anyone who was not sharing same view as them, Iranians viewed as belligerent against opposing voice, Iranians were associated with terrorism, just to make the list short, Iranians were associated with anything which had negative stigma, and now you do the math.

The matter of fact comes down to this that Iranians earned negative stigma due to their own mistake for doing fiasco of 1979 in Iran, and allowing bunch of thugs to represent them at the United Nations as an individual like selected president Mahmud Ahmadinejad would appear at United Nations and called for national referendum in Palestine in order to wipe Israel from the region. He had nothing really to offer to international community, and his speech had no substance to enjoy, but look at a person with thuggish attitude to represent will of people in international community.

It would be interesting to explore Mahmud Ahmadinejad's mind frame about world affairs so that there was understanding about his view on world affair.

On September 18th, 2008 Mahmud Ahmadinejad appeared on state television program and answered some questions to state media. He stated that there was no animosity against people of United States of America, and the regime in Iran had problems with the US Government.¹ Obviously, this selected president lacked political science knowledge. In the US people go to polling stations and cast their vote for a candidate to be elected in their constituency whom was reflecting interest and will of that constituency. Unlike the regime in Iran that it is not base on democratic process, as people are alienated from their representative of their constituency and representative did not reflect will nor did have consent of its constituency to govern. Henceforth, it would be logical to say that the regime was expressing its own wish against American people that it was hostile, and when the regime was saying death to America, and bring the US flag, it was a serious matter which should not be undermined.

Mahmud Ahmadinejad stated that “the Zionist regime is an artificial regime... a fictitious regime. You brought people from different parts of the world and you have built this state. No, that cannot last, it is not sustainable.”² He also gave his own analogy by making a reference to “Soviet Union has been wiped off the map.”³ Responding to his above statement from Persian Expression that “javab ablahon khamosh ast” which means there is no reason to answer mentally dull president Mahmud Ahmadinejad. Particularity, this selected president has no real understanding of world affairs.

Celebrating 2500 Years of Monarchy in Iran:

On October 12th, 1971 His Imperial Majesty, Light of Aryan, King of Kings Mohammad Reza Pahlavi celebrated 2500 years of monarchy in Iran, which put Iran on limelight as a nation of power and glory. Iran was no longer subject to humiliation of Russia and England. Iran was an independent nation which was determining its own destiny, and Iran became a significant player in world affair.

The October 12th is the day that Cyrus the Great found Iran, and established first ever empire which was incepted on first Universal Declaration of Human Rights which was written by Cyrus the Great as he proclaimed that all people in dominion of Persian Empire would be protected by Cyrus the Great's Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and Universal Declaration of Human Rights had codes which were new to anyone in its own time; such as, freedom of speech, freedom of thought, absent of religious persecution and many more rights that people would enjoy in his empire.

On October 12th, 1971 was first day of ceremony as His Imperial Majesty, Light of Aryan, King of Kings Mohammad Reza Pahlavi with Her Imperial Majesty, Empress Farah Pahlavi paid homage to King of Kings Cyrus the Great's mausoleum at Pasarguard.

and for next two days dignitaries and head of state of other nations began to arrive at Shiraz's airport and they were greeted with honor and respect by His Imperial Majesty, King of King Mohammad Reza Pahlavi or Her Imperial Majesty, Empress Farah Pahlavi and were ushered to ancient land of Persepolis with 250 red Mercedes Benz limousines. The dignitaries and head of states were brought to magnificent 50 tents which were prepared by a Swiss Interior Designer firm of Jansen AG which borrowed its concept from 1520 Field of the Cloth of Gold with Persian touch and were arranged in star pattern around a circular fountain and trees were planted in order to re-live ancient Persia's memory.

As always Iranians were custom to greet their guests to their home, in this national event, it was not any different than any other occasions. Iranian opened their doors to dignitaries and head of states were greeted with honor and respect. Just in this case, Iranian allowed Maxim's de Paris restaurant to prepare food for their honorary guests with foods like quails eggs stuffed with Caspian caviar, mousse of crayfish tails, roasted rack of lamb with truffles, roasted peacock, and serving refreshment like champagne sorbet.

Imperial Iranian Armed Forces took part in this historical event by wearing ancient military custom of each period and took part in military parade and illustrated power and glory of Iran to everyone. This magnificent military parade was refreshing everyone's mind that Imperial Iranian Armed Forces had 2500 years of history with unblemished record.

Princess Grace accompanied by Prince Rainier of Morocco.

There is a legitimate question to ask that what was purpose of celebrating 2500 years of monarchy tax payers expense? The above image which is taken from Persepolis, it illustrates, people from different part of the world appeared before mighty Persian King of Kings and gave their homage to the Persian. Indeed, this celebration had same motive with its own tone and agendas as dignitaries and head of state of other nations appeared before might King of Kings Mohammad Reza Pahlavi and paid their gratitude to Him for keeping Middle East and world in peace.

A Letter to her/his Sibling:

Hello My Sibling

Today, I am writing this letter to you because you had a chat with our parents about me. Let me begin by expressing my view on your name that I do not like your new name because it is not Persian, I like your Persian name because you are Iranian, does not matter, where you are or what you are, you are Iranian from proud land of Aryan which means noble, Canada in native language means that is the village. There is a big gap between Iran and Canada. Even, Canada does not see you as a Canadian, so do not bother to fit in, just be what you are. What is this Canada? A land of native killers, and enslaving black people, there is not much into this country. I am Iranian, proud Iranian, I came from proud land of Cyrus the Great, and speak volume for itself. Thus, I am not going into detail about Iran.

You left a message to mom and dad that I work for monarchist, and I laugh at it. Did you expect me to work for Marxist-Islamist? People who slaughtered us in Iran were Marxist-Islamist or you wanted me to work for mullah? I do not know what you meant. Kindly know this that I will shed my blood for my country and have no fear of death because death is upon us, I cannot run away from inevitable. As a matter of fact, I am seeking death for a long time, I want to kiss sweet death that is why I left trace of myself so killers come after me, I know I am dancing with death, I want to dance with this death, even in my dreams I dance with death. I am going to push it harder and harder every day so they come after me, and they can kill me, but I am not going down without shouting. You do not know how much I hate this life, this life means nothing to me. I am not walking on the edge, I already passed the edge. I am seeking it, and breathing it every second.

You told mom and dad "you see I follow dad's advise and not involved in politics". I say good for you. I am not involved in politics either. I just want to have a last dance with fortune lady. So, I am seeking my venues to dance with this fortune lady. I want to grab her hard, and dance with her. I am just dancing and nothing else.

Our other sibling worked very hard to stop me from what I do, and could not stop me. So, he gave-up. Please you do the same favor for me and give-up and do not try to stop me. Nobody, understands me anyway, and let me enjoy this glorious dance with fortune lady.

My dear siblings enjoy excellent quality of life with your families and do what you folks would like to do, and let me dance because the music is good, and never been better than this melody that I hear in air now. Oh my sibling let me embrace death with joy and glory and stop your none sense. Please, if there is anything you want to remember me, so remember me as a lone soldier that is what I am, and that is how remember me a lone soldier.

Feeling Pain:

Open Letter to Ahreeman X:

Sunday September 14th, 2008

Dear Mr. Ahreeman X:

RE: Your Derogatory Remark to Imperial Iranian Armed Forces

The below paper says a lot about Mr. Ahreeman X, it says that he is in pain who wants to say something deep about his pain to others and this pain has been trapped inside of him for past thirty years. There is no doubt in anyone's mind that it is difficult to express this pain to others, and there are constructive approach to overcome emotional pain by taken right path to ease pain.

Mr. Ahreeman X did not understand that www.alineshat.org website is dedicated to all immortal soldiers and it is not solely defending rights of victims of high ranking of Imperial Iranian Armed Forces that they gave their life for Iran, there were individual like Dr. Kouroush Aryamanesh that he was a civilian and Sarbazan and Janbakhtegan Organization honored him too. This organization always has been on front-line to defend interest of Iranian on many frontiers; such as, Persian Gulf or educating public about this Machiavellian current regime to everyone by using www.alineshat.org to reach to everyone.

Mr. Ahreeman X made an unwarranted comment that Honorable Immortal Major-General Ali Neshat signed a neutrality paper with other high rank officers not to interfere in revolution which was not true. Honorable Immortal Major-General Ali Neshat did not sign any paper with anyone. Also, this paper of Mr. Ahreeman X took one step further and began to use derogatory remark that Honorable Immortal Major-General Ali Neshat was a coward person. There is no doubt that Mr. Ahreeman X never met the General. Henceforth, the above remark would not have any merit. As a matter of fact, such vulgar comment of him would not solve anyone's pain.

Madam Shirin Neshat is in pain like anyone else and loves and not loved her father dearly, and by name calling her father with such a tone and language would not solve anything. It is a direct personal assault on Madam Shirin Neshat.

The bottom line, all fathers, brothers, mothers, and sisters that they were taken away by the Islamic Republic in Iran needs to be cherished by everyone that they gave their life for Iran. It is with utmost regret that current situation is not in favor of anyone, but it does not mean to use derogatory comment to others love one.

Evidence:

What was the reality?

Shah was aware of every single crime, which had occurred during Pahlavis. Without Shah's blessings nothing could have occurred in Iran. Shah was a sole dictator of Iran overseeing all activities.

The corrupt Pahlavi Family, mainly all the Princes and Princesses were roots of all corruption, frauds, embezzlements, thieveries, drug dealings, shady deals, monopoly, unfair business practices and suffocation.

Imperial Generals were corrupt and so was Darbar (Imperial court). Monarchists and Feudals and other Kiss Asses were all crime partners and servants who overseen every single crime which had occurred in the Imperial Iran.

All of a sudden, Imperial Iran became heaven, Shah became Angel Gabriel and Monarchists became these great Do Gooders! Kiss Asses like Ardeshir Zahedi and his family became Great Martyrs and Nationalists! Pahlavi Corrupt Family became Saints and worthless Imperial Generals became giant stars in skies of Martyrdom! We are talking about the same Generals who combinely signed that famous paper and handed Iran to the Mullahs! We are talking about the same Generals who refused to fight and to save Iran! These guys became National Heroes! The perfect example is Shirin Neshat's website creating super heroes out of his coward father (General Neshat) and other coward Imperial Generals! This is the history according to Monarchists!

Report:

John McCain vs Hussein Barack Obama:

Now, it is clear and crystal that Senator John McCain and Senator Hussein Barack Obama are going face to face for this up-coming presidential election during month of November, and as of right now, Senator Obama took off his boxing gloves and throwing his punches at Senator McCain.

Senator Obama accused Senator McCain on two areas, one Senator McCain is computer illiterate and last Senator McCain is not in touch with economic issues.

Quite frankly, Senator McCain is not using computer like an average person due to his physical disability. When he was a prisoner of war during Vietnam War, North-Vietnamese broke his fingers. He is unable to use his hands like anyone else. He has been very fortunate to have a supportive family to assist him with typing and other aspect of computer. Thus, Senator Obama made a premature conclusion that Senator McCain was computer illiterate. Obviously, Senator Obama was capitalizing on deficiency of Senator McCain in order to gain vote among younger voters that they are playing with computers and are using computers as means of daily activities.

There was an economic issue for McCain to handle when he responded to Lehman Brothers bankruptcy by saying that the US economy was healthy and fundamental principle of US economy was strong as always. His opponent quickly seized the occasion and said that Senator McCain was not in touch with reality because Senator McCain did not understand economic and not because he did not care about people. In fact, Senator McCain said that the US economy was healthy because of skilled workforce which became obvious Obama was going to use dirty trick to manipulate every word was used by Senator McCain to distort information. It also Senator Obama's tactic worked like a charm. Recent, Gallup poll indicated that 48% of American assumed Senator Obama handled economy better than McCain and 45% assumed Senator McCain handled economy better than Senator Obama.

Obviously, as time is shrinking, and anxiety is rising between these presidential candidates, their blood pressure is going-up and want to win this race at any cost. Even, it means to show a picture of each other posing in a nude picture or some unwarranted remarks.

What does matter for Iranian here and not just Iranian-American. It is obvious, in case Senator Obama is elected as US president, it means the cleric regime is in a familiar territory of former US president Jimmy Carter, if Senator McCain is elected as US president, it may means real danger posing on Iran's nuclear facilities, and the US may launch 73 hours preemptive military assault on Iran's nuclear facilities. Obviously, Iranian need to convince Senator John McCain not to use military force against Iran, which would not do any good for anyone, but to support Iranian to do regime change in Iran and not with rhetoric words, and with regard to Senator Obama, who wants to follow and enforce former democrat US president Jimmy Carter which brought the regime in Iran. Thus, it is obvious here Senator McCain is right choice for Iranian to vote for him and not Obama.
