

Khomeini's Ideology Concept:

Khomeini says in one of his sayings "that all what I brought for Iranians is taken from Kerbla's tragedy" this saying indicates clearly that Khomeini's revolution he brought for Iranian people is dedication to sadness and depression culture to Iran and Iranian community. That crazy person cancels all happiness and joy appearances to Persian nation to replace them with sadness culture taken from Hussein's imam tragedy (grandson of Mohammed Prophet). Simply Khomeini's ideology, he inspired from Hussein's tragedy, implies that Hussein imam has been killed with his family by infidels so all Muslims should live their life term in permanent sadness and depression during all times until judgment day to prove that they are loyal for their Hussein imam. This is Khomeini's sick ideology he applied to Iranians and tried to export to others countries such as Iraq, Lebanon and Palestine and he succeeded to do so. Under this ideology, that every appearance of joy and pleasure for Iranians is prohibited thing and Islamic regime should fight it. Khomeini made Iranians live under sadness, depression and terror. Here I want ask any unfanatic Muslim or non-Muslim is sensible that people should live their life term in permanent depression and sadness to prove their loyalty for Hussein imam? Absolutely, the answer will be no.

Here we can say that Khomeini has dedicated to sadness culture in Iran which reflects clearly his sick ideology.

Recognizing, that joy and luxurious life appearances of nobles and kings who ruled Persia through different historical times, were the special feature for Iranian civilization and reflect clearly that Iranian people are people love life, joy, beauty and colors. That feature of flamboyant and luxurious clothes available in civilization heritage for Iran kept the feature which distinguishes a greatness of Persian civilization and people and their love for joy and beauty than others world's peoples, But after Khomeini takeover of Iran, a view of the world for Iran has changed dramatically because Khomeini dyed Iran with blackness and sadness and made Iranian women wear black and tall cloaks that prevents any appearance reflects the happiness or joy for her even he banned Iranian woman to dress with anything which makes her appears as a happy woman because he wants to Iranians to keep a sad nation forever and don't know civilization so, that view of advanced countries for Iran, changed after Islamic overthrow where Iranian person became in view point of these advanced countries as an ignorant and ridiculous guy even. That view of the world towards mullah's regime is a same their view to Taliban's regime in Afghanistan where both regimes meet in one tributary and both are responsible about most terrorist activities that struck Europe, America and others countries around the world during last decades. In fact, Khomeini and Taliban's regimes are two faces for one coin if they differed in ideology where both worked to eradicating national and historical features for Iran and Afghanistan to replace them with Islam civilization even that Khomeini's regime preferred affiliation of Iranians to Islam than their national affiliation to Iran and its ancient civilization so we can see, that Iran became invaded with a lot of Arabs and other Islamic nationalities, such as Iraqis, Lebanon, Palatines and others even some of those nationals became have more privileges and preference than Iranians themselves because Khomeini's regime prefers Islamic affiliation for Iranians than their national affiliation to Iran and its ancient civilization, so Iranian person who his love and affiliation to the Islam stronger than his national affiliation, so he become favorite guy for mullah's regime. Simply we can say that Khomeini removed all what is a national and patriotic for Iran and Iranians and replaced it of what is Islamic and Arabic.
