They Were Soldiers of Iran; Honor Them

Iran land of bravery, land of courage, land of honor, land of fearless lion, land of sun, land of monarchy, land of sacrificing ones life for their King, land of determination, land of never given-up, land of selflessness, land of freedom, land of justice, and land of truthfulness were some of paean the Imperial Iranian Armed Forces chanted in thirsty throat in their cells while they were being tortured to death by Marxist-Islamist as the Imperial Iranian Armed Forces slowly and painfully were taken in their final journey in proud ancient land of Iran, and joined golden page of history so others would carry torch of freedom for their King and Iran with this understanding that one day justice would prevail every corner of Iran and shadow of justice would illuminate every dark spot in Iran. So, shadow of death and demise would not rule Iran for this long.

The King did not live long enough to bring the brutal regime down and to liberate Iran from hands of savage Marxist-Islamist because the King did not survive his cancer and departed from this world in Cairo, Egypt. The Mighty King of Iran left this world broken heart as the King witnessed his loyal army was massacred in cold blood, and no international agencies intervene to stop mass murdering Imperial Iranian Armed Forces.

The surviving families of the Imperial Iranian Armed Forces remained truthful to their fathers' oath despite all hardship that they endure since 1979/2538 and remained determine to carry torch of freedom to Iran and for their King. There was a vision for Iran and their King to move Iran toward justice for all and to end this irrational and senseless brutality in Iran ones for all.

All in all, ancient land of Iran, proud land of monarchy, land of immortal soldiers that they gave-in their precious life for Iran and for their King without asking a question, these immortal soldiers shall be honor for their dedication, as well as, sacrifices that they made for Iran and for their King, and let's remember them as men of honor and courage that they decided to die for their high principle that they stood by and decided not to serve the cleric regime for one minute and honored their words with courage and honor to their King and Iran. These immortal soldiers passed torch of bravery, courage and honor to their fearless families to liberate land of lion, and land of sun, Iran from hands of Ahriman

{evil}, and gave true meaning to Iran and Monarchy that Iran and Monarchy were interwoven to one another which made Iran. They were soldiers of Iran, honor them. The surviving families will honor their King and immortal soldiers in this struggle for freedom of Iran and will deliver torch of justice in Iran which is a promise and will be kept, and justice which has been denied for too long shall be prevail in Iran and illuminate every gloomy part of Iran ones for all.
